

Titchfield Builders turned what was a difficult area into a beautiful, useable space which my family will be able to enjoy for many years.

The team were courteous and nothing was too much trouble. The project came in on budget and even when we changed our minds about the detail, Andre was extremely helpful and went through the implications of the changes with us.

We are really delighted with the service we received from Titchfield Builders and have not hesitated in recommending them to anyone we know.